UNDEFEATED ICEMEN HOST RIVAL MC GILL, POWERFUL YORK

Loyola's Hockey Warriors will put their undefeated record on the line twice this week when they host Mc Gill Redmen on Wednesday, November 13 at 8 p.m. and York University Yeomen on Friday, November 15, also at 8 p.m.

This past weekend the Warriors raised their record to 5-0-2 with an 11-5 win over Queen's University Gaels and a 6-6 deadlock with Trois Rivieres Patriotes. Highlighting the weekend's play was the scoring exhibition put on by the newly formed line of Steve Benoit, Randy Mohns and Mike Haramis. Benoit, replacing the injured Doug Grills, himself scored 5 goals while Mohns accounted for four and Haramis picked up six assists. In all, the high-scoring line accounted for 24 points over the weekend.

In the goaltending department, the unavailability of Jim Corsi definately hurt the team. Corsi, Loyola's Athlete of the Year for 73-74, was playing for the Soccer Warriors in the C.I.A.U. National Championships. The opposition's total of 11 goals in two games was way above the team's average of 2.40 G.A.

The Mc Gill Redmen, Wednesday's opponent, are surprisingly strong this season, having lost a 5-4 squeaker to the strong Sir George Williams Georgians. The York Yeomen are one of the strongest teams in Ontario and boast a 5-4 victory over the defending National Champion Waterloo Warriors.

WARRIOR FACTS. . . .

The fine play of the Benoit, Mohns and Haramis line was a pleasant surprise for Coach Arsenault. . . up until this weekend the Harris, Wilson and Hansis line was providing most of the fire-power . . . the absence of defenseman Mike O'Doherty has weakened the defense somewhat. The Acadia transfer will be on the shelf for another four weeks with a separated shoulder. . . Arsenault feels this is a blessing in disguise however, as his young defensemen are picking up needed experience . . . Doug Grills, Mike Relihan and Jim Corsi all return to the lineup this week.
